

Justice Connect PLT placement– Not-for-Profit Law Service, Sydney Office

Justice Connect is a community legal centre, delivering access to justice through pro bono to people experiencing disadvantage and the community organisations that support them.

We are currently recruiting a PLT student to work with our specialist legal service Not-for-profit Law, for a minimum of three days per week, commencing as soon as possible.

Not-for-profit Law provides free and low-cost legal assistance to not-for-profit community organisations in New South Wales and Victoria.

As a PLT student within NFP Law, you will receive training and supervision and will have carriage of files. You will have the opportunity to participate in:

- Taking instructions from clients (not-for-profit organisations);
- Assisting the Manager to assess matters for referral;
- Legal research;
- Referring matters to Justice Connect member law firms and barristers; and
- Drafting letters, memorandums and briefs.

Applications will be assessed on a demonstrated interest in and commitment to not-for-profit organisations and the community sector.

The Justice Connect Sydney office is located in the Sydney CBD. This is an unpaid position.

You must:

- Have completed or be close to completing College of Law, or its equivalent at a participating university;
- Be able to work at least 3 days a week; and
- Undertake a minimum of 60 days of practical legal training at Justice Connect.

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis and the positions will be open until filled.
